Former minister pleads guilty

A former minister of the Lamar Church of Christ was placed on probation Monday after pleading guilty to a rape charge.

John C. McClane, 34, 1208 Grand, was sentenced to five years in the Department of Corrections, then placed on five years supervised probation by Circuit Court Judge David Darnold.

McClane admitted he had sex with a girl younger than 14 years old between April 1 and June 1 of this year.

Another condition of his probation is that he must attend and complete a sexual offender program at Fulton.

McClane left his position at the church earlier this year.
